On account of the extreme heat the Chambersburg public schools were closed this week.

A joint picnic of the Epworth and Junior Leagues was held at Dougley last Saturday.

After having spent two weeks with friends in Harrisburg, Mrs. Max Sheets returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Akers, and two children, of Everett, left last week for a two months' visit to relatives in Iowa and South Dakota. Mrs. Akers is a sister of Mrs. C. D. Hixson in the Extension.

Fred Lodge returned to the Maryland Agricultural College for his senior year's work yesterday. He was accompanied by Mac Morton, who will enter that institution for a four years' course.

Why send to Mail Order Houses for your Fall and Winter Underwear and Coat Sweaters when you can see what you are buying from J. K. Johnston? Look his entire line over before buying elsewhere.

WANTED.—First class all-round store man, or good live man as clerk; also, first class saleslady who is good stockkeeper and can sell goods. Send application by mail. Harry Huston, Saltillo, Pa. 992t

George M. Eitemiller, who had been in a hospital in Detroit on account of an accident recently has so far recovered as to be able to accompany his son Frank to Kansas City where he expects to spend the winter.

Some day, all little streams will be dammed at every suitable point and small dynamos at the falls will generate electricity to light and do the work now done by gasoline engines on farms. So say our scientists.

The A. Warriston Johnston farm, three miles north of Newville, Cumberland county, as advertised in the NEWS and sold at public sale last Saturday, brought $23 an acre—cheap for a large stateland farm in that locality.

Ohio dealers are offering $8 per ewt. for lambs and are getting none. Well, when Ohio sheep shear from 12 to 18 pounds of wool worth from $3 to $5, and gather much of their living on hillsides, they are worth holding.

B. R. Simpson brings the story from Thompson township that one day recently, he was in W. C. Peck's potato patch when the latter was digging the crop, and saw hills that yielded eight pounds of fine potatoes. In other words, every seven hills yielded a bushel of tubers.

Harry Snyder, who works as repairman at Cline's garage, accidentally upset Dr. Mosser's Ford runabout one day last week while he was testing a repair. Snyder received a severe cut near one of his knees when the side of the car fell on him. Harry and the car were then towed to the garage for repairs.

We acknowledge a pleasant call last Saturday from Mrs. Axie Geinger, of Buck Valley, and Miss Laura Wallace, of Bedford county. Mrs. Geinger came over with Wesley Geinger in his auto on matters pertaining to her late husband's estate, and to arrange for a public sale of stock and farm implements.

One day last week, while Rev. J. V. Royer, a former McConnellsbury pastor, was holding services at one of his Millinburg appointments, his auto was stolen. We have been unable to hear of its recovery. Mr. Royer has the sympathy of scores of Fulton county friends, and we hope he will find his machine.

Pennsylvania farms produce about $15,000,000 worth of butter annually. Creamery butter is not included in this estimate.

Remember this. If you do not go to the primary and vote for your men, you must not growl if they are not nominated and put on the ticket for the November election.

Mr. D. D. Deshong, Pittsburgh, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Deshong, were in town a short time yesterday on their way down to visit Davie's sister, Mrs. John Ewing in the Cove.

Harry Irwin is somewhere on the high seas to-day, on his way home from England. After a conference with the Landis Tool Company, of Waynesboro, for which he travels, and a short stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Irwin, of McConnellsbury, he will return to England. Harry will arrive in America this week.

Moonlight will be just right next week to show the country people the way to the Chautauqua. Friends, if you miss attending these grand entertainments, to be held in the Auditorium, September 22-23-24, you will regret it ever afterwards. Take the word of the NEWS for that. Only 240 season tickets on sale.

J. Nelson Sipes, spent part of last week in Cumberland county and attended the sale of the A. W. Johnston farm. Mr. Sipes seemed surprised that land at that point—land that would grow 20 bushels of wheat and 40 barrels of corn to the acre should sell for $23. The adjoining farm of 195 acres was bid to $21—but not sold.

"PEG O' MY HEART."

The Great American Comedy of Charm. Given at the Lyceum Festival.

On the first day of the Lyceum Festival Miss Mary Agnes Doyle will present "Peg o' My Heart." Miss Doyle has had great success upon the stage and in the portrayals of character. She has always been heartily welcomed. Her voice is pleasing and Irish brogue delightful. Her facial expression is especially suited to this character, as she possesses an unusually attractive smile. Miss Doyle's talent for her work is shown particularly in the changing of her expression, voice and manner when she turns from the cold, exacting, supercilious Englishwoman; the weak, "big headed," mercenary young Englishman; the indifferent cynical daughter, Ethel; the true gentleman, Jerry, and then back to Peg, the dear little Irish girl.

The play "Peg o' My Heart" is well known. The author, J. Hartley Manners, knew well the desire of an American audience. The play is undoubtedly the triumph of the decade. It is sweetness and cleanliness that have enhanced its wonderful popularity. It is a comedy of charm. The story deals with Peg, the daughter of an improvident but lovable fishman, and an aristocratic Englishwoman, on whom her relatives turned their backs when she set out for America with the husband of her choice. By the will of one of Peg's uncles, who repented on his deathbed his unkindness toward his sister, the little Irish maiden is brought to England to be properly reared at the expense of his estate. Peg is received into the family of an aunt, not from love, but for the sake of the money that her care and instruction would bring. Her treatment is hardly that of a favorite relative. She finds little to make life pleasant. They dislike her, but Peg holds her own with jaunty pride, and in the end, by her generosity and big heartedness, she wins her fortune and, what's more, a very gallant lover. Her experience as portrayed sets forth vividly the contrast between her rather uncouth manner and the stilted and conventional ways of the English household.

Seldom does one have an opportunity of hearing so fascinating an impersonation of such a delightful play. The great appreciation for the play is shown by the fact that it has the phenomenal record of having been given 904 consecutive times in New York.

The program of the Lyceum Festival which is to be held in our town is under the auspices of the Chautauqua Association of Pennsylvania. This association was organized four years ago and has been holding Chautauqua and Lyceum Festivals in more than 300 towns during the past year. The Lyceum Festival is sometimes called a Three Day Chautauqua and is customarily held in smaller towns than are the full Chautauqua programs of seven days. The talent, however, that is provided is up to the same high grade as that provided on the larger program and wherever held has given most excellent satisfaction. The season tickets are sold at a surprisingly low rate, and one feature upon the program is well worth the season ticket price.

NEEDMORE.

The Democrats in, and around Needmore were called upon by all five candidates for County Treasurer the past week. That's right, Candidates. Come often. We enjoy your smokes.

Our Calithumpian Band turned out and gave some music to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hill on last Tuesday evening. It had been some time since they had been out.

Our schools opened Monday. We hope they are all supplied with good teachers, and at close of term it may be said that we have had better schools the past year than ever.

Mr. A. P. Garland and wife visited Michael Bard last Sunday.

The State Road that leads through Needmore is being worked by Ranaud Mellott and R. C. Dixon as "bosses."

Levi Garland was a pleasant visitor in the neighborhood of Pleasant Ridge Sunday. Levi, How do you like Olives by this time?

Mrs. Nelhe Peck is visiting friends and relatives at Needmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hill visited relatives at Crystal Springs and Emmaville the latter part of last week.

Walter Peck, wife and two children, Harry and Mary, returned home last Saturday after a weeks visit with Mrs. Peck's relatives in Pittsburgh. The trip was made in Mr. Peck's Ford touring car.

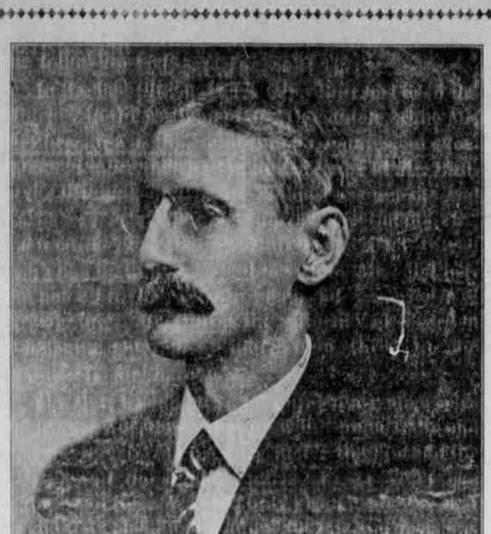

Mrs. Martha Garland, who has been sick for some time back is no better at this writing.

New Dentist in Town.

Dr. George E. Bartholomew formerly of Philadelphia, who has been practicing seven years, has opened temporary offices over the Fulton County Bank, until his office in the Post Office Building can be completed and made ready. Dr. Bartholomew is ready to accommodate patients for all kinds of Dental work or Surgical work on the mouth or jaws. He has had surgical experience in two of Phila's largest Hospitals and is equipped with a new method for painlessly extracting teeth or painlessly drilling them ready for filling. He solicits a trial and guarantees entire satisfaction.

Hundreds—many hundreds—of bushels of peaches that were raised in Franklin county were hauled at a great expense over Cove mountain and sold in McConnellsbury and vicinity this season. Does it not seem odd, since expert fruit growers tell us that we have Nature's choicest fruit soil along the west side of the same mountain, that all that money should go to outsiders.

George Sill, A. R. Peters, Ed Barefoot and Geo. Bowser—all of Bedford, motored to McConnellsbury last Sunday in Mr. Sill's auto and took supper at the Fulton House.

J. L. BUTT

Candidate for President Judge of the 51st Judicial District Composed of the Counties of Adams and Fulton.

To the Voters of Adams and Fulton Counties:

J. L. Butt asks your judgment on his candidacy for President Judge of your Courts of Common Pleas at the Primary September 21, with your vote cast in his favor.

Mr. Butt has given you a clean, square and honorable campaign, just like the man he is. It has not been built upon attacks upon opponents.

Mr. Butt has told you that he would never have been in the Campaign if he had not had the backing of eight of his associates at the Bar, asking him to become a Candidate, a backing no other candidate has. The first name on the letter his brother lawyer associates addressed him was that of the late Judge Wm. McClean. Attorneys always seek to elevate to the Bench one who has always proven himself honorable in all his relations with his associates, fully qualified and learned in the law.

Mr. Butt prepared himself thoroughly for his chosen profession of the law by graduating from Gettysburg College, reading law in the office of J. C. Neely, one of the ablest lawyers at the Bar at the time, and beginning the practice of the law in one of the busiest offices, that of J. A. Kitzmiller. Some idea of Mr. Butt's experience in comparison with that of the man attacking him can be gathered from the following facts:—

In the last fifteen years Mr. Butt has been the attorney in the settlement of 213 estates, while Mr. McPherson was the counsel in 93 estates, an experience of more than two to one in favor of Mr. Butt. In the bringing of original actions, assumpsits and trespasses, attachments, replevins, ejectments, etc., the records show that Mr. Butt in the past fifteen years has instituted 75 actions while Mr. McPherson has 23 to his credit, again an experience of three to one. Mr. Butt is the attorney of record in judgments entered of more than three to one against Mr. McPherson.

Mr. Butt has given you a fair, square answer to the license questions, that he will "impartially and conscientiously" do his duty under the law and the decisions of the higher courts. Every voter can understand this. It is the only proper answer that a candidate should give under the law and decisions of the Superior and Supreme Courts.

Now, Mr. Voter, approval of the candidacy of Mr. Butt is asked. Make it a winning campaign for Mr. Butt.—Pol. Advt.

German Items.

War news, compiled especially for Fulton county, may be stated in the following condensed form:

1st.—By reason of the German embargo on potash we must do without it.

2nd.—By reason of the failure of many to learn what part nitrogen, phosphorus, and potash play in the growth of any plant they are going to make costly mistakes in the purchase of fertilizers this fall.

3rd.—By reason of the first clause in the second reason, advantage is being taken to advance the price on strictly all-American-made fertilizer mixtures.

4th.—By reason of the three foregoing reasons, a lot of our readers are studying things they never bothered their brain about and

5th.—by reason of the 4th reason the war may prove to be a good thing for Fulton county.

6th.—By reason of strict censorship at the foreign cable office the foregoing is all that the Kaiser can say to us this week.
